

Multi-Faith Prayer Room Code of Conduct

The Multi-Faith Prayer Room is available to all LSHTM staff, students and visitors who would like space for prayers or quiet contemplation.

For any problems, queries or for anything related to this room please email azim.khan@lshtm.ac.uk

- The room is available for all faith groups to access.
- Please do not put any posters/frames/drawings/notices without permission up in the room, as these will be removed.
- Please be sensitive to others accessing the facilities at all times; the facility is for everyone to share. You are expected to respect fellow users accessing the facility.
- No food or drink allowed.
- Please remove your shoes and leave them by the door.
- Anyone found to be disseminating or distributing offensive material within the prayer room, against religious and non-religious groups, will be reported.
- Please keep all your personal possessions with you at all times and remember to take them with you when you leave.
- Please ensure you clean up after using the wash facilities to avoid any accidents.
- Please at all times keep noise levels down to the minimal. This room should not be used for group gathering or group talks.
- Please leave the Prayer Room as you found it, return any furniture etc. to its original location, and make sure that the room is clean and tidy when you leave. Prayer mats should be folded away when not in use.
