

There are limited quantitative data exploring the relationship between violence in childhood and child labour

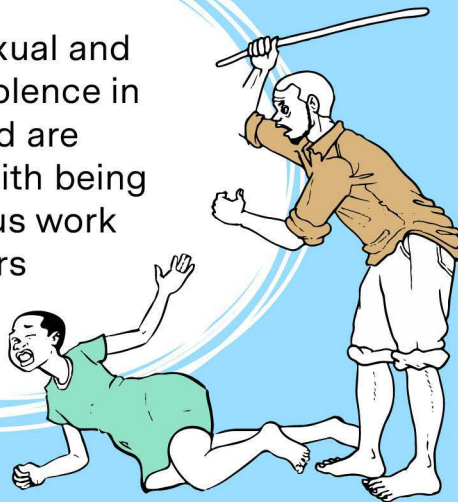

January 2023

Violence in childhood is associated with children being in hazardous work sectors

Physical, sexual and emotional violence in childhood are associated with being in hazardous work sectors

January 2023

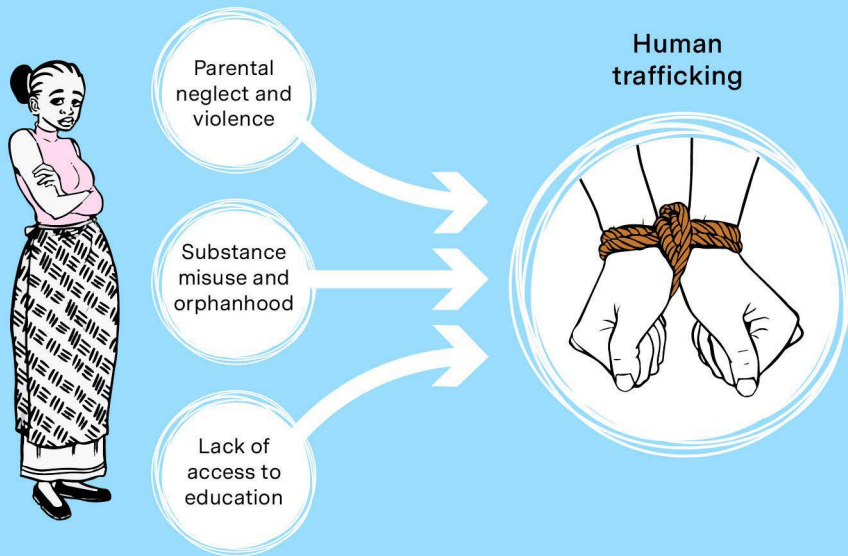

Domestic workers are at particular risk of violence

1 in 2 young girls employed in domestic work report violence in the workplace in the past year

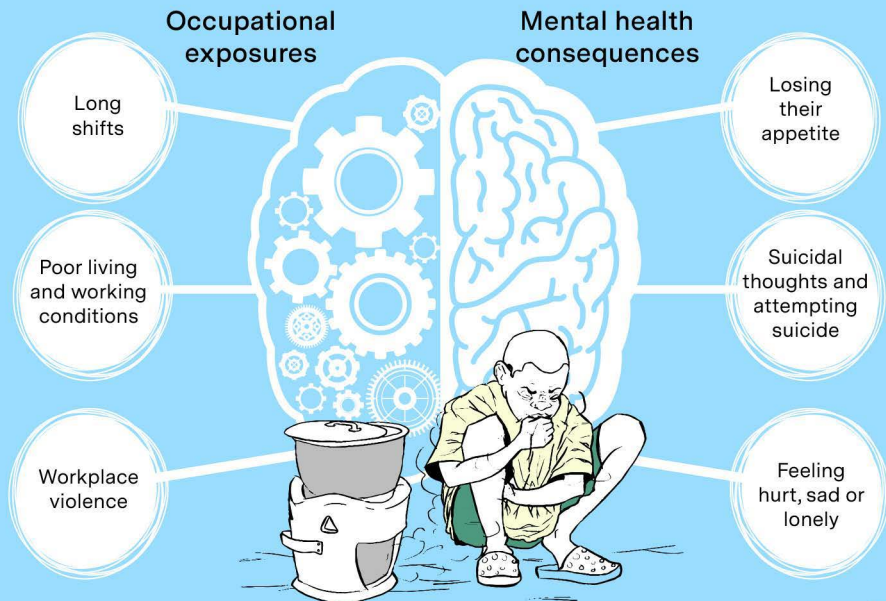

January 2023

Adverse childhood experiences and lack of access to education place adolescent girls at risk of human trafficking

January 2023

Young people experience negative mental health consequences due to child labour and trafficking

January 2023