

Taiwan-UK Conference on Sex, Gender and Sexuality Health Research 台灣—英國多元性/別健康研究會議

Date: Saturday 16th July 2022

Time: 08:00-12:00 UK / 15:00-19:00 Taiwan Time

Meeting Link (Zoom):

<https://lshtm.zoom.us/j/95980056979?pwd=WnRibVREZEZDWEhqQmptb0NoQ3NZdz09>

Meeting ID: 959 8005 6979 Passcode: 449326

Agenda:

UK time / 台灣時間	Content	Moderator
08:00-08:05 下午三點整 至 三點五分	Opening and Greetings	Ford Hickson London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine (LSHTM), UK Principal Investigator
		Nai-Ying Ko National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan Principal Investigator
08:05-08:30 三點五分 至 三點三十分	Introducing the Taiwan-UK SGS Health Research Network (TUSHRN)	Nai-Ying Ko National Cheng Kung University
		Natalie Edelman University of Brighton
08:30-09:30 三點三十分 至 四點三十分	Parallel Session One (See Page 5 for Speaker List)	Sally McManus City, University of London
		Carol Strong National Cheng Kung University
09:30-09:50 四點三十分 至 四點五十分	Tea/Coffee Break and Networking 1	TUSHRN Taskforce

Ford Hickson
LSHTM

09:50-10:50
四點五十分 至 五點五十分

Parallel Session Two
(See Page 5 for Speaker List)

Nai-Ying Ko
National Cheng Kung University

Isaac Yen-Hao Chu
LSHTM

10:50-11:05
五點五十分 至 六點五十分

Tea/Coffee Break and Networking 2

TUSHRN Taskforce

11:05-11:50
六點五十分 至 六點五十分

Reflection, Feedback and Q&A

- What is the most inspiring thing that you have learned today?
- How can these learning and reflection foster your future research and collaborations?

Ford Hickson
LSHTM

Nai-Ying Ko
National Cheng Kung University

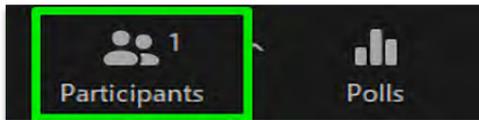

11:50-12:00
六點五十分 至 七點整

Looking forward

THSHRN Taskforce

Reminders for ALL participants

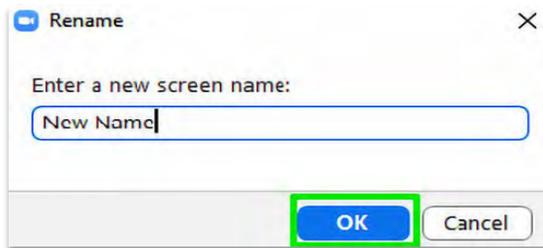

1. If you have difficulty accessing Zoom via institutional accounts, we recommend you join the Conference by registering a new personal account. Here is some useful information on setting up Zoom on your devices (in English or 中文版 Zoom 使用說明).
2. Please remember to show your name and preferred pronouns (e.g., he/she/they) by:
 - 1.) To change your name after entering a Zoom meeting, click on the “Participants” button at the top of the Zoom window.

- 2.) Next, hover your mouse over your name in the “Participants” list on the right side of the Zoom window. Click on “Rename”.

- 3.) Enter the name you’d like to appear in the Zoom meeting and click on “OK”.

Ref

3. Parallel Sessions:
 - Workshop: Please click the designated link shown on Page 5.
 - Presentations: Please self-select Presentation Room 1 or Presentation Room 2 by:
 - Click Breakout Rooms  in your meeting controls. This will display a list of Presentation Rooms.
 - Hover your pointer over the number to the right of breakout room you wish to join, click Join, then confirm by clicking Join.
 - Repeat as necessary to join other breakout rooms or click Leave Room to return to the Main Conference Hall (our assistants will standby to help you).
 - Please return to the Main Conference Hall at the end of each Parallel Session.

4. We will use Padlet <https://padlet.com/profmonicako/2022SGS> to collect your real-time feedback on workshops and presentations. See https://youtu.be/S4YZUV_fkV4 for how to post on Padlet (no registration required).
5. How to use Google Jamboard for the Reflection, Feedback and Q&A session (Google account may be required): <https://teachers.tech/how-to-use-google-jamboard/>
6. We hope that you can consider the following Key Conference Questions beforehand:
 - How are sex, gender and/or sexuality conceptualised and operationalised in current health research?
 - How may different operationalisations change the findings of the research?
 - What categories of sex, gender and sexuality are most useful for understanding their natures?
 - What categories of sex, gender and sexuality are most useful to policymakers?
 - How does the way we measure or categorise sex, gender and sexuality in health research impact our research participants, data users and communities?
7. Anti-Harassment & Anti-Discrimination Policy: TUSHRN aims to provide a safe and welcoming Conference that is free from prejudice and intimidation towards all participants. We do not tolerate any forms of discrimination or harassment, including but not limited to sexual harassment. If anyone experiences or witnesses any violation of our anti-harassment policy during the Conference, please immediately report such instances of discrimination or harassment to TUSHRN Taskforce at TaiwanUKSGS@lshtm.ac.uk.

Speaker List 講者名單

Time	Workshop	Presentation Room 1			Presentation Room 2
Parallel Session 1 08:30-09:30 平行議程一 15:30-16:30	Applying the Trauma & Resilience Informed Research Principles and Practice (TRIrPP) Framework to SGS Research Dr Natalie Edelman	Thinking Race/Ethnicity in Taiwan and the UK Dr Wen Liu Dr Eva C.Y. Li	Using Routine Data for LGBT Health Research Dr Katie Saunders	Developing Measures of Sex and Gender for Britain's Fourth National Survey of Sexual Attitudes and Lifestyles (Natsal-4) Anne Conolly Soazig Clifton	(Re-)Conceptualising 'Safe Spaces' in Healthcare: Implications for LGBTQ+ Health and Wellbeing Dr PJ Annand Dr Chia-Lin Charlie Li	Reproductive Disparities: a Comparison between UK and Taiwan Ana Carretero-Resino Dr JhuCin Rita Jhang Jung Chen	'Sexual Harassment' or 'Sexual Need?' Rediscovering Sexualities in Long-Term Care Pei-Yu Chen
		Moderator: Sally McManus			Moderator: Dr Carol Strong
Parallel Session 2 09:50-10:50 平行議程二 16:50-17:50	Better Measurement of Sex, Gender and Sexuality Dr Ford Hickson	2020 School Climate Survey on LGBTQ+ Students in Taiwan Sean Sih-Cheng Du	Health Professional Students' Civil Action against Gender and AIDS Discrimination - Taiwan Experience Zong Tai YoYo Wu	Sexual and Gender Minority Inequality in Medical Training in Taiwan Jheng-Min Yu	'Gay is Good, but Sex and Drug are Bad.': Queering Health Behaviour Studies Dr Alvaro Martinez-Lacabe Dr Po-Han Lee	To Speak Out Loud: Reframing and Destigmatizing the Discrimination of People Living with HIV/AIDS through Storytelling and Art Performing Chia Ching Wang (Raymond)	Not Judging Viruses with a Gender Overlay or through a Sexuality Prism Dr Yi-Tsun Chen
		Moderator: Prof Nai-Ying Ko			Moderator: Dr Isaac Yen-Hao Chu

Invited Speakers

WORKSHOP 1

Natalie Edelman (she/her)

Principal Research Fellow, University of Brighton

Honorary Research Fellow, Brighton and Sussex Medical School

N.Edelman@brighton.ac.uk

Dr Edelman is a mixed methods sexual health researcher whose work has spanned community-based testing programmes for HIV and syphilis among MSM, PrEP triage, the impact of COVID on MSM and gender diverse people, and sexual health needs of women with problematic drug use. She has developed a Trauma and Resilience Informed Research framework to improve participation for marginalised groups.

WORKSHOP 2

Ford Hickson (he/his/they/their)

Associate Professor, Department of Public Health, Environments and Society,

London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine

Ford.Hickson@lshtm.ac.uk

Ford Hickson is Associate Professor at London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, where he is Programme Director MSc Public Health and teaches about sexuality and health, social science methods, and substance use. He holds bachelor's degrees in Psychology (1988) and Opera Studies (2014) and a doctoral degree on Authority, HIV and Sex between Men in England (2008).

Presentations in Parallel Session 1

Wen Liu 劉文 (she/her)

Assistant Research Fellow, Institute of Ethnology, Academia Sinica, Taiwan

Wenliu@gate.sinica.edu.tw

Wen Liu is assistant research fellow at the Institute of Ethnology, Academia Sinica, Taiwan, and affiliated faculty at the Department of Sociology, National Taiwan University. Informed by affect theory, critical race studies, and queer theory, her book project (forthcoming from the University of Illinois Press) investigates diasporic Asian American subjectivities and their geopolitical alignments in times of US-China interimperial rivalry.

Cheuk-Yin Eva Li 李卓賢 (she/her/they/their)

Lecturer in Media and Cultural Studies, Sociology Department, Lancaster University

Eva.li@lancaster.ac.uk

Eva Cheuk-Yin Li is Lecturer (Assistant Professor) in Media and Cultural Studies at the Sociology Department of Lancaster University. Her research and teaching interests include gender and sexuality, fandom and audience participation, transnational popular culture, and affect and cultural memory.

Katie Saunders (she/her)

Senior Research Associate, University of Cambridge

Ks659@medschl.cam.ac.uk

Katie Saunders is a statistician working at the University of Cambridge. She works on health services and policy research and evaluation projects using quantitative methods, and routine healthcare data; currently evaluating the health and wellbeing impact of the construction of phase 2 of High-Speed Rail 2 development (HS2), researching how to improve LGBTQ+ health and healthcare outcomes, and evaluating the impact of service innovation in the NHS.

Anne Conolly (she/her)

Research Director, National Centre for Social Research

Honorary Senior Research Associate, UCL

Anne.conolly@natcen.ac.uk

Anne is a health researcher and survey methodologist in the Health & Biosocial Surveys team at the National Centre for Social Research and an Honorary Senior Research Associate in the Institute for Global Health at University College London (UCL). She specialises in managing complex, large-scale social surveys with particular expertise in bio-social data collection methods.

Soazig Clifton (she/her)

Academic Director, National Centre for Social Research

Honorary Senior Research Associate, UCL

S.clifton@ucl.ac.uk

Soazig is a survey methodologist and epidemiologist based in London, UK. She is part of the core team on the British National Survey of Sexual Attitudes and Lifestyles (www.Natsal.ac.uk), and leads on questionnaire development for the survey, including the development of questions about gender and sex, and adapting the questionnaire to be inclusive of gender minorities. She is jointly employed by University College London and NatCen Social Research.

PJ Annand (all pronouns)

Leverhulme Early Career Fellow in Department of Sociology, University of Surrey

Visiting Lecturer at Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College London

P.annand@surrey.ac.uk

I am an academic with expertise in health and social inequalities, focusing on violence and abuse, trauma, gender and sexuality, health at/and work, and survivor-led and participatory research methods. I also have 10 years' third sector experience in research and campaigns with a focus on child rights, sexual and reproductive health and rights, mental health and social justice. I was recently awarded a Leverhulme-funded fellowship to lead the Queering Shelter project.

Chia-Lin Charlie Li 李佳霖 (he/his)

RD Committee Member, Taiwan AIDS Nurse Association

Ph.D., Institute of Social Research and Cultural Studies, National Chiao Tung University, Taiwan

"Cum for Thought" Initiator

Lichialeen@gmail.com

My research focuses on socio-cultural dimensions of HIV/AIDS, biomedicalization, and biopolitics. In the past decade, I have been invited to give speeches on HIV/AIDS and chemsex culture, reaching the audience that includes college students, NGO workers, and healthcare staff.

Ana Carretero-Resino (she/her)

Visiting lecturer at the University of Brighton

Visiting Lecturer at Regent's University London

Member of the Centre for Transforming Gender and Sexuality at the University of Brighton

A.CarreteroResino@brighton.ac.uk

Community psychologist, qualitative researcher interested in gender, sexualities, postcolonial studies and mental health, with experience working as community interpreter and working with LGBT+ populations and people with disabilities.

JhuCin Rita Jhang 張竹芩 (she/her)

Project Assistant Professor, Global Health Program, National Taiwan University

Ritajhang@ntu.edu.tw

Dr JhuCin Rita Jhang is a Project Assistant Professor in the Global Health Program at the National Taiwan University. She is also the president of the North American Taiwan Studies Association (term 2021-2022). She has a Ph.D. in Communication Studies from the University of Texas at Austin, and her research involves family communication, LGBTQ issues, gender and sexuality, and health communication and advocacy. Aspiring to be an activist researcher, she currently studies the negative health impact of exclusionary policies and cultural practices using connectivity as a health framework.

Jung Chen 陳容 (she/her)

PhD Candidate, Department of sociology, University of Cambridge

Jc2244@cam.ac.uk

Jung Chen is a PhD candidate at the Department of sociology, University of Cambridge. Her research interests are LGBTQ+ studies, sociology of reproduction, and sociology of family. Under the supervision of Prof Sarah Franklin and Dr Marcin Smietana, her PhD project looks at queer reproductive justice and queer relatedness in Taiwan.

Pei-Yu Chen 陳佩妤 (she/her)

Graduate Student, Department of Sociology, National Chengchi University, Taiwan

Peiyu.nccusoc@gmail.com

Pei-Yu Chen is a graduate student from the department of Sociology, National Chengchi University. She is also a member of Hand Angel (手天使) and Taiwan Sex Industry & Workers' Rights Advocacy (性產業勞動者權益推動協會) respectively. Both sex rights and labor rights are the issues she concerns.

Presentations in Parallel Session 2

Sean Sih-Cheng Du 杜思誠 (he/his)

Secretary-General, Taiwan Tongzhi (LGBTQ+) Hotline Association

Xiaodu@hotline.org.tw

Sean Sih-Cheng Du is the Secretary-General of Taiwan Tongzhi (LGBTQ+) Hotline Association. His work includes gay men's sexual health, workplace equality, social education, and international affairs. He is a member of Taipei City Committee of Gender Equality. He has a master's degree in Sociology from National Taiwan University.

Zong Tai YoYo Wu 吳宗泰 (they/their)

Research Fellow, Taiwan I Seed Association

Yoyohotline@gmail.com

Host a civil education program with Ministry of Education (Taiwan) on Integrated anti-Discrimination and stigma campaign for youth. Work with substance use and People Living with HIV communities. Advocate gender equality, Science Not Stigma, and HIV Undetectable Equals Untransmittable (U equals U). I don't keep silent in moments of injustice.

Jheng-Min Yu 于政民 (he/his)

Graduate Student, Graduate Institute of Gender Studies, Kaohsiung Medical University, Taiwan

Fisherminyu@gmail.com

Jheng-Min Yu is an M.S. student at Graduate Institute of Gender Studies, Kaohsiung Medical University. His research and teaching interests include medical education, medical sociology, and gender inequality. He is also a Gender Equity Committee member of Taipei Doctors Union and teaches LGBTQ rights, sexual harassment, and other gender issues to healthcare staff in Taiwan.

Alvaro Martinez-Lacabe (he/his)

Lecturer, University of York

Albarorena@hotmail.com

Alvaro Martinez-Lacabe is a qualitative researcher working on the intersections of sexual subjectivities and health governance. He has a PhD in Humanities from the University of Roehampton and a MA in Sexual Dissidence from Sussex University. He has worked as a consultant for the Open University in the international initiative ACCESS (Approaches in Complex and Challenging Environments for Sustainable SRHR), and he is currently working as a lecturer in the Center for Women's Studies at the University of York.

Po-Han Lee 李柏翰 (he/his)

Assistant Professor, Global Health Program, National Taiwan University

Pohanlee@ntu.edu.tw

Po-Han Lee is an Assistant Professor at the Global Health Program, also associated with the Institute of Health Policy and Management, of National Taiwan University. He has been studying the politics of human rights regarding minority health. He is an Editorial Member for Sociology Compass, Feminist Review, and Taiwanese Journal of Sociology and a senior editor for Plain Law Movement, the first multimedia platform for legal and human rights education in Taiwan.

Chia Ching Wang (Raymond) 汪家慶 (he/his)

Board member, Taiwan HIV Story Association

Woojc6430@gmail.com

Chia-Ching Wang is one of the board members of Taiwan HIV-story association, a licensed social worker, and a certified counselor in Taiwan. He works in the Department of Psychiatry of Cheng-Hsin General Hospital and helps patients with mental illness, substance problem, and their families. He is passionate about fighting social injustice and stigma and participates actively in advocacy for PLWHA and other marginalized populations. He also volunteers for “Taiwan Tongzhi (LGBTQ+) Hotline Association” and is currently a committee member of the gender equality commission in Taiwan Guidance and Counseling Association.

Yi-Tsun Chen 陳奕村 (he/his)

Independent researcher

Chentriangoes@gmail.com

Independent scholar with research experience and interest of health studies and diseases control and prevention in relation to HIV/AIDS, gender/sexuality, and the universal access to health infrastructures. Currently undertaking the comprehensive WHO, UNICEF, GAVI and US CDC-hosted immunization demand training for universal vaccine uptake of the COVID-19 and infodemic management.

The Taiwan-UK Sex, Gender and Sexuality
Health Research Network (TUSHRN)

lshtm.ac.uk/tushrn

#TWUKSGS #SGS

The Conference and the TUSHRN project are funded by the ESRC-MOST UK-Taiwan Networking Grants. Please contact the TUSHRN Taskforce at TaiwanUKSGS@lshtm.ac.uk if you have any questions or inquiries.